Declaration of the author of this MSc thesis

The undersigned (replace with student-author's first name and surname, followed by father's first name) with the following student registration number: MRES-____, postgraduate student of the MSc by Research in Electrical and Electronics Engineering, which is organized by the Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering of the Faculty of Engineering of the University of West Attica, I hereby declare that:

I am the author of this MSc thesis and any help I may have received is clearly mentioned in the thesis. Additionally, all the sources I have used (e.g., to extract data, ideas, words or phrases) are cited with full reference to the corresponding authors, the publishing house or the journal; this also applies to the Internet sources that I have used. I also confirm that I have personally written this thesis and the intellectual property rights belong to myself and to the University of West Attica. This work has not been submitted for any other degree or professional qualification except as specified in it.

Any violations of my academic responsibilities, as stated above, constitutes substantial reason for the cancellation of the conferred MSc degree.

(Optional part, remove if not applicable:) I wish to deny access to the full text of my MSc thesis until (replace by date), following my application to the Library of UNIWA and the approval of my supervisor.

INTRODUCTION

Give a general introduction to the subject of the thesis. Keep it non-technical.

The subject of this thesis

Define the subject of this thesis. Refer to the major issue or problem to be addressed and explain why it is interesting, important and timely.

Aim and objectives

Give the aim and objectives of this thesis and further analyze them into specific research questions to be investigated.

Methodology

Define the methodology to be adopted and describe briefly its steps.

Innovation

Give those features, elements or aspects of this thesis that are innovative.

Structure

Briefly outline the structure of the thesis, in chapters.
